T.N.: [a] As given.

[b] Probably MADRID, though this cannot be confirmed.

[c] Inserted by the translator.

[d] Last letter uncertain.

[e] The Spanish "J" has approximately the same phonetic value as the Russian "Kh", which is written as "X".

Comments: [i] Also occurs in NEW YORK/MOSCOW MGB traffic. Probably refers to some central organisation in MOSCOW.

[ii] Possibly a cover-word for members of the local Communist Party.

[iii] KHALEKTERIST[ICA]: This may possibly refer to some means of identification sent in a signalled message, denoting the originator.

[iv] ALEX: Note that the book "Defense Will Not Win the War" was used for encoding by the agent known in NEW YORK/MOSCOW MGB traffic as "ALEKSANDR" [NEW YORK's external serial no. 1142 of 10th August 1944 - 8/NBF/T399, Item 1]. Other references to "ALEKSANDR" suggest that he was operating in South America. It would therefore appear that "ALEX" and "ALEKSANDR" are identical. "ALEKSANDR" is unidentified.

[v] UGALDO is a not uncommon name in Chile.

[vi] Presumably the covername proposed for or allotted to this man.

[vii] VILL is a not uncommon name in Chile.
